This explanatory note outlines some of the implications of a change to the regulation module applying to a community titles scheme. This note must accompany the voting paper for a general meeting where that voting paper proposes a change to the existing module identified in the community management statement. You should carefully consider the differences between the regulation modules before voting on the motion. NOTE: The bold text indicates a departure from the 'standard position' as represented by the Body Corporate and Community Management (Standard Module) Regulation 2020.
